

Between 22 and 26 March 2022, IOM conducted a rapid profiling survey of Third Country Nationals (TCN) displaced from Ukraine in Belgium. The study is intended to gather initial insights into the profiles of third country nationals displaced from Ukraine. IOM Belgium collected this information at the 'Petit Chateau' registration center in Brussels, with support from FEDASIL. In total 41 TCNs displaced from Ukraine agreed to voluntarily and anonymously complete the survey conducted by IOM staff. During the interview 71% indicated Brussels as their place of residence, 29% have registered in other cities.

Summary: 68% of persons lived in Ukraine for more than 3 years – 74% has reached higher education level – For 71% it was the first time they left Ukraine since their arrival there – 30% indicated the desire to return to Ukraine - 73% would like to find a job as soon as possible – Education is the most needed form of support requested – For information about Belgium, friends, diaspora and relatives are the most important sources of information – Majority of interviewees mentioned the heavy impact of stress, violence and discrimination along the journey from Ukraine.
